Background

Laraine Russo Harper served for six years as the madam of a well-known brothel in Pahrump, Nevada, sixty miles west of Las Vegas. She spearheaded a dramatic transformation of the brothel from a dingy collection of trailers into a luxury resort.

Harper has spoken before Mensa and UNLV on the subject of legal prostitution. She has also been interviewed by Canadian, British and American television regarding how legal and illegal prostitution affects society.

Harper no longer works in the industry but she still lives in Pahrump with her husband and seven dogs.
